

HEALTH SAFETY & ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY

EUROLINK SAFETY, a globally recognized partner for creating superior values and excellence in enabling varied business interests of Consultancy Services with a robust and state-of-the-art in training development capabilities, superior service, and innovation, is committed

- to provide a safe & healthy work environment for all personnel for prevention of work-related injuries and ill health at work place
- to continually improve performance pertaining to health safety & environment
- to comply with all HSE obligations including local, ministerial and international as well as customer-imposed requirements
- to protect environment by prevention of pollution during execution of all services including training and consultancy
- to eliminate hazards & reduce risks through assessment of HSE hazards & risks and monitoring on planning & service stages
- to enhance HSE awareness among employees through their consultation & participation.

Issue-02, Revision-0
Date- 10.01.2025
ES-UAE-MR-HSEP

Harold Stanley Wright
Managing Director